Construction Law Seminar 2010

Federal Construction Contracting: The Basics

Breakfast Seminar, Tuesday, April 13, 2010, 8:00 a.m.

What You Need To Know About Federal Construction Projects

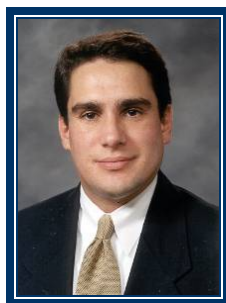

An increasing number of federal stimulus construction projects are underway as a result of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, and more of these projects will be starting up in the coming year. This seminar, presented by Murphy Austin Adams Schoenfeld LLP construction attorneys, will help contractors and subcontractors obtain the tools they need to pursue, obtain and successfully perform federal contracts for construction projects.

Key Topics Covered In This Seminar Include:

- Federal Procurement 101. What you need to know about bidding and obtaining federal construction projects.
- Federal Acquisition Regulations (FARs). Your understanding of the FARs may be the single most important factor in determining your success on a federal construction project. Discover how the FARs work.
- Managing Contract Changes. Learn how to successfully present and pursue change orders.
- Miller Act (Payment Bond)/Payment Disputes. The nuts and bolts of what you need to know about payment disputes and bond claims on federal construction projects.
