OVERVIEW

Crystal Vizina represents clients in complex family law matters with a particular emphasis on resolving child custody disputes and domestic violence restraining order proceedings.

Crystal focuses on providing sensible counsel to achieve the most favorable outcomes, tailored to the unique needs of each client. She has a depth of understanding and experience navigating the difficult and sensitive nature of family disputes, especially when there are children involved.

Crystal brings compassion and empathy to her practice along with her unwavering dedication to client advocacy and strict confidentiality. In addition to representing clients in child custody cases, Crystal also counsels clients in all aspects of family law including dissolution of marriage, legal separation, prenuptial agreements, support, and domestic violence.

Crystal earned her J.D., along with a certificate in Children's Rights, from Whittier College School of Law and her B.A. from University of California at Davis.
