OVERVIEW

Trina Spivack counsels clients in challenging family law matters, including dissolution of marriage, legal separation, custody, premarital and postmarital agreements, child support and spousal support. Her straightforward approach focuses on providing cost-effective and favorable outcomes for her clients.

Trina is skilled at navigating complex, high-asset cases with sensitivity and strict confidentiality. She has a depth of experience handling difficult family disputes which can be traumatic for the involved parties and their children. She assists her clients with compassion and empathy, helping them get through the process in a dignified and professional manner. Trina works closely with clients to obtain the necessary documents and information for the most expedient and beneficial resolution. She is experienced in preparing detailed settlement proposals, marital settlement agreements, and other pleadings which promote a favorable, negotiated resolution of matters.

Trina earned her J.D. from University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law and received her B.A. from California State University, Sacramento.
